McGUIREWOODS

Luncheon

McGuireWoods' Broker-Dealers and Investment Advisers Team has decades of experience working inside the SEC, U.S. Attorneys' Offices, State Attorneys General, and state securities divisions.

Our combination of transactional, litigation and regulatory knowledge means we have a deep understanding of how various broker-dealers and investment advisers operate, the policies of the bodies that govern them, and the nuances of negotiating with the government and SROs.

McGuireWoods guides clients through examinations, enforcement actions and criminal prosecutions by getting involved early, providing valuable insight into the investigative process, addressing compliance concerns and devising strategic responses. Our team conducts internal investigations and audits, generating practical advice for clients on establishing and strengthening compliance and supervisory programs. We address issues before they develop into formal investigations, however in the event of an investigation, we provide effective and strategic advocacy in order to defeat or curtail the prospect of formal charges or claims against our client.

Morgan Lewis

Digital Event Guide

For more than 30 years, Morgan Lewis's Securities Enforcement Practice has represented financial institutions, public companies, and senior executives in regulatory investigations and enforcement proceedings conducted by the US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the US Department of Justice (DOJ), and other governmental agencies, as well as all major self-regulatory organizations, including FINRA. The group also conducts internal investigations and acts as an independent consultant to firms in matters arising out of regulatory settlements.

Our team includes former high-ranking government prosecutors and veteran SEC lawyers. These include a former Chief Litigation Counsel for the Division of Enforcement, as well as more than 20 other former SEC attorneys. We also have practitioners who previously worked at the DOJ and FINRA, as well as several former government prosecutors from districts across the United States.
