

Meet SIFMA

A brief introduction for our valued broker-dealer, investment bank and asset manager members

SIFMA's members count on us to be their principal advocate and forum for industry policy and professional development. A key benefit of full membership is participation in our committees, forums, and roundtables. These groups drive SIFMA's work on behalf of our members. All employees of SIFMA member firms receive discounted or complimentary access to our educational events and webinars.
